

Holly I. Colangelo, ARNP, received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Keuka College in New York and her Master's of Science in Nursing from The State University of New York At Buffulo. She has spent most of her twenty-eight year career working primarily in obstetrics. Her career began as a Registered Nurse in a Level III Labor and Delivery unit and branched out into nursing management as well as outreach education & academia. Following her graduate work, Holly practiced as a Nurse Practitioner in Obstetrics and Gynecology as well as a Clinical Nurse Specialist, Clinical Educator & Nursing Faculty. Currently, she has been serving women with high-risk pregnancies at UPA for over six years. Holly has pioneered our "Pregnancy Loss Center" program, which provides counseling & next-step planning for women that have experienced difficulties with previous pregnancies.